

About Antonia Spuhler

Accountant, Business Economist (FH), TEP Dip(ITM)

a.spuhler@kendristrustees.com

Phone +41 58 450 59 27

Antonia Spuhler is a manager of KENDRIS TRUSTEES (USA) LLC. Her primary responsibilities are business development, client relationship management and ensuring operations and corporate governance.

Antonia Spuhler is also a partner and the head of a trust and corporate administration team of KENDRIS Ltd. in Zurich, Switzerland, where she assists international high net worth individuals in the establishment of trust and corporate structures and oversees the daily administration of such structures. She is a board member of KENDRIS' Swiss based trust company for which she acts as a business developer and is responsible for the trusts company's corporate governance. Furthermore, she leads the KENDRIS' International Market Management Committee as co-head.

Prior to joining KENDRIS Ltd. in 2008, Antonia Spuhler was a team leader for Trust Management Europe of Credit Suisse Trust Ltd. in Zurich, Switzerland, where she was responsible for the management and administration of trusts and foundations for international high net worth individuals as well as for Family Office Services. During that time, she was also seconded to the Trust and Fund Administration of Credit Suisse in Guernsey, the Channel Islands. Prior to joining the Credit Suisse Group, Antonia Spuhler was working as a financial accountant for a Swiss accounting and fiduciary firm.

Antonia Spuhler obtained a Federal Diploma as Accountant/Fiduciary in Switzerland and studied Business Economy at the University of Applied Sciences in Zurich, Switzerland, and Berlin, Germany. She is also a holder of the Swiss Advanced Certificate in Trust Management and the Diploma in International Trust Management (Dip. ITM), and is a Member (TEP) of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP).

Antonia Spuhler enjoys spending time with her family and her two children. She also enjoys cooking, gardening and skiing.