Daniel Schmid is a manager of KENDRIS TRUSTEES (USA) LLC. His primary responsibilities include new client and business development, special projects administration, and client relationship management.

Daniel Schmid is also a partner and head of the legal team of KENDRIS Ltd. where he advises international clients on establishing and administering tailor-made solutions for succession planning and wealth structuring purposes. Furthermore, he is responsible for the compliance with regulatory requirements applicable to KENDRIS Ltd. and the entities which it administers.

Prior to joining KENDRIS Ltd. in 2009, Daniel Schmid was a member of the Wealth Planning department of UBS AG where he assisted international high net worth individuals with the establishment of trusts and foundations. During that time, he was seconded to the Private Client team of White & Case, New York, for an international assignment. Prior to joining UBS, Daniel Schmid was an associate in the law firm Niederer Kraft & Frey where he advised private clients in succession planning and international executorship issues as well as assisted in drawing up last wills and marital and testamentary agreements.

Daniel Schmid attended the University of Bern School of Law and received his admission to the Bar of the Canton of Bern in 1998. While in law school, he served as a law clerk for the District Court of Biel and for Amberg & Krähenbühl, Attorneys-at-Law, in Bern, Switzerland. He is a member of the International Bar Association and the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP). Daniel Schmid received his Master in Comparative Law (M.C.L.) from the University of Miami in 2004 and his LL.M. in Equity and Trusts from the University of London in 2016. He also holds a diploma in International Trust Management (Dip. ITM) from STEP.

Daniel Schmid is married and enjoys spending time with his wife and his two children. He also enjoys sports such as tennis, skiing and snowboarding.
